Personal Finance Quick Draw

Mrs. Leigh's Personal Finance Class

- Gets Students Up and Out of their Seats
- A Fun Summative Assessment
- Great for Dumpster Fire Days

BUSINESS EDUCATION WITH Denise Leigh

Materials Needed:

- One Large Piece of Butcher Paper or Poster Board per Group
- Color Markers
- Personal Finance QUICK DRAW Teacher Prompts

What's Included?

- Teacher Directions
- Teacher Tips
- Personal Finance Quick Draw Prompts
- An Example Quick Draw Generated by AI

(Your students' versions won't be as nice and that's okay! Artistic ability is not important!)

2 Example Prompts:

1. Draw the outline of a large house on your paper. Make it as big as possible!

2. Types of Insurance: Draw five large windows on your house. In each window, write one of the five types of insurance that most families should consider.

There are 22 prompts included

A GREAT WAY TO MIX UP YOUR DAILY TEACHING ROUTINE!

For Personal Finance students to complete this activity, they must know the following:

Insurance: Five common types of insurance and what they protect
Budgeting: The 50/30/20 budgeting rule and how to allocate income
Needs vs. Wants: Distinguishing essential expenses from discretionary spending
Financial Goals: Short-term, medium-term, and long-term financial goals
Savings: The importance of saving money and building financial security
Emergency Funds: The purpose of an emergency fund and recommended savings amounts
Banking: Differences between checking and savings accounts
Credit Scores: Understanding the FICO credit score range
Credit Cards: Responsible credit card use and management
Debt: Financial risks associated with excessive borrowing
Income: Differences between gross pay and net pay
Payroll Deductions: Common deductions from an employee's paycheck
Taxes: Common types of taxes individuals and families pay
Investing: Basic characteristics of stocks, bonds, and mutual funds
Compound Interest: How money grows through compound interest
Identity Theft: Strategies for protecting personal and financial information
Financial Planning: Steps toward achieving financial security
Cost of Living: Expenses associated with purchasing and maintaining a home
Consumer Decision-Making: Strategies for making smart purchasing decisions
Financial Habits: Habits that contribute to long-term financial success

A Fun Way to Assess Your Personal Finance Students

I have Quick Draws for Accounting, Personal Finance, and Entrepreneurship.

BUSINESS EDUCATION WITH Denise Leigh

Hi! My name is Denise Leigh. I have been teaching Business Education for over 25 years! I love collaborating with business educators all over the world. I am a 2022 Pennsylvania Teacher of the Year Finalist and relentless lifetime learner and lover of everything education. Engaging students and connecting them to their world is my jam!
Thank you for exploring my resources and sharing my passion for BUSINESS EDUCATION!

Denise Leigh is an expert on student-led instruction. She was featured on CBS Pittsburgh for her City Collaborative™ Project-Based Business Education (PBL) Classroom.

