

Billionaire

Research Project

A great collaborative activity for students to research, report their findings, and display a student-created classroom creation!

Students research a billionaire of their choice and learn the qualities of successful people.

Using the same resource link as the last, answer the following questions.

According to this resource, what does one need in order to be a billionaire?
What two individuals were known to be the first billionaires?
Is Warren Buffet a self-made billionaire?

This is a Collaborative Google Slides File.

Your class works in the SAME file and each student stays only in their ASSIGNED slide.

You will ❤️ this!

Everyone in the class will be working in this file at the same time. STAY ON YOUR PAGE! There is NO reason for you to be on another slide.

Choose a billionaire that you would like to learn about. Your billionaire must be a self-made billionaire. You will be telling their story in photos with captions. Type your name in the first column and then list the billionaire that you would like to do your photo research.

Teacher Testimonials

This resource was a lot of fun and engaging, the kids loved the research and found it enjoyable

This resource was an excellent addition to my classroom. It made my job easier and helped make my lessons more engaging for students.

As always...I absolutely love this resource. This is an excellent addition to my Career and Finance curriculum resources. I think it would be good in any business class! Students don't realize they are learning, they grew very engaged and interested. Once again, you have saved me a lot of planning time!

I used this at the beginning of the semester and the students really loved it. I printed out their billionaire's pictures and their work and displayed. The students were engaged and enjoyed finding out all about their chosen billionaire.
