

Federal Agencies Consumer Protection Digital Discovery Activity

Students explore the THREE
Consumer Protection Agencies

Student discover about the Clayton
Act

Students investigate why the Securities and Exchange
Commission is in place

NO PREP!
Saves you time!

A GREAT introduction to three federal agencies - FDA, FTC and CPSC - that are put in place for consumer protection.

Students are prompted to explore the FDA, FTC and CPSC. They discover information about the Clayton Act, and they investigate the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).

NO PREP!

Great for a SUB DAY or Remote Learning Day!

Google Doc that convert easily to MS Word

The image shows a preview of a Google Doc with a red background. The document is titled "Federal Consumer Protection Agencies" and "WebQuest". It contains a table with three rows: "Consumer Product Safety Commission", "Federal Trade Commission", and "Food and Drug Administration". Below the table, there is a list of tasks for students to research and report on. A large, white, 3D-style "PREVIEW" watermark is overlaid across the center of the document.

Federal Consumer Protection Agencies

Listed below are 3 federal consumer protection agencies. Search the web to find what each agency does to protect consumers. Use your own words...

Agency	What does it do?
Consumer Product Safety Commission
Federal Trade Commission
Food and Drug Administration

WebQuest

What is the Clayton Act? What is the goal...and who does it protect and why?

Entering the SEC

What is the mission of the SEC?

What does the SEC require from public companies? Why?

Who does the SEC oversee?

Investigate a new vaccine for dogs to protect them from Lymes Disease.

Looking into banning a new motor scooter that allegedly has faulty brakes.

Test the safety of a new face cream that claims to have anti-aging components as well as act as a sunscreen.

It was alleged that Facebook violated its privacy promises to consumers and subsequently violated a 2012 Commission order.

Set a safety standard for handheld fans.

Great for a Sub Day or Remote Learning

Teacher Testimonials

Great resource for my Business Law students who found it easy to follow and engaging.

I used this resource in my Introduction to Business class while we were doing hybrid instruction during the pandemic. Both virtual and in-class students enjoyed it and were engaged through the lesson.

Denise's resources are always professional and engaging. She's the best of the best!

I have purchased many of her activities and lessons!! Always a great resource to be had!!

Hi! My name is Denise Leigh. I have been teaching Business Education for over 25 years! I love collaborating with business educators all over the world. I am a 2022 Pennsylvania Teacher of the Year Finalist and relentless lifetime learner and lover of everything education. Engaging students and connecting them to their world is my jam! Thank you for exploring my resources and sharing my passion for BUSINESS EDUCATION!

Denise Leigh is an expert on student-led instruction. She was featured on CBS Pittsburgh for her City Collaborative™ Project-Based Business Education (PBL) Classroom.

