John, age 15, went to the Verizon Store to purchase a cell phone and signed a contract for $29 a month for service. His mother was not happy. What can his mother do to remedy the situation?

EVALUATE
Joan, age 23, just got her wisdom teeth out two days before buying a car. She was unable to drive to the dealership due to her pain medicine so her brother drove her. The brother commented to the car salesman Joan's slurred speech was due to her meds. Four days after buying her new SUV, she decided that she couldn't even park the vehicle because it was so large. Can Joan return the car? Explain

Teacher Testimonials

i can't say enough for the resources I have purchased from Denise Leigh. This was a great interactive that encouraged student learning having meaningful conversations.

Contract law is challenging for my law ed students, but this resource helped me to support the book content.

Worked well to fill in and reinforce concepts in Entrepreneurship

This was a great resource that kepts (sic) students on task and learning content. Bonus that I could leave it for a sub with no prep!

My students used this as a follow up activity to our lecture for contract law and they really enjoyed it and learned alot
