Human Resources

The most valuable resources of a business are human resources. Actual human resources are the people who work for an organization. Someone must manage them, arrange training for them, assure that they get what is needed so that they succeed and in turn, the business succeeds. Human Resource Management (often called HR) is an area in which one can specialize. There are several careers that one can pursue in the field.

THIS LINK is a great resource as it lists 10 careers for those wishing to manage the human resources of an organization. If that link fails ...use this link

Review the careers. Select 4 of the careers that may interest you. Tell why that choice is great. List 3 duties or responsibilities of individuals in that role
