Laws Maintain Order

We have all had rules our entire lives. Laws are rules made by the government. They are put into place to maintain order and peace. They essentially affect every aspect of our lives. Below are some daily activities. THINK and ANALYZE. Use the web to search for laws that affect that daily activity.

Activity	List a law that affects this activity	What is the purpose of this law?	Is this law federal, state, or local?
Using a cellphone
Driving a car
Sitting in class
Getting the mail
Shopping at the mall
Picking out an outfit for the day
Ordering a beverage at a restaurant
Using Social Media

Law vs Student Handbook

The purpose of the Student Handbook is to provide students and their parents/guardians an understanding of the general rules and guidelines for attending and receiving an education in our school. The enrollment contract between the school and parents is a legally binding document. This is often found in the back of your student handbook and is usually signed every year. This is why it is important that the school handbook is reviewed carefully by parents and students AND carefully put together by the school to make policies clear. These policies are the school law.

What can you NOT do in school that you can do elsewhere? Explain why this is so. How do you feel about this?

COMPLETELY EDITABLE!

Although the school is within their right to adopt policies (or laws) to maintain order and create a safe environment for all students and a safe work environment for teachers and workers...what rights can the school NOT take from students? Why?

GREAT FOR INTRO TO LAW CLASS, BUSINESS LAW CLASS, INTRO TO BUSINESS CLASS, & CIVICS CLASS

Teacher Testimonials

Wonderful Activity--students will love it. Thanks so much!

I used this as an introduction activity when discussing why and how laws are made.
Great conversations from students.

This gave me a great start/guide when planning my lessons for a new course I have been assigned to teach this year.

This is an excellent resource to enrich the introduction of law. I used it with both my hybrid and fully remote students. They had no problems and it easily integrates with Google Classroom.
