EXAMPLE SLIDE

Abracadabra!

Teacher Testimonials

This is a great resource for typing practice. I like to save the different slides separately and use them as a bellringer or as an extra resource to reinforce a topic. (6th grade)

These slides include a wide variety of topics that reinforce keyboard skills and keep early finishers busy! (9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th grade – High School)

My students aren't very happy when they are assigned keyboarding homework but these resources make it fun. (4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th grades)

Super fun activity for early finishers or extra credit work! (7th grade)
