

Piper's Pumpkin Spice Food Truck

Journalizing Transactions Review

Part 1 of 2

Great Extra Practice for Journalizing Transactions

Can be used as an ASSESSMENT!

Excellent Way to Reinforce Learning

Real Life Scenario

NO PREP!

BUSINESS EDUCATION WITH Denise Leigh

A young entrepreneur named Piper started a Pumpkin Spice Food Truck business! Students journalize transactions for Piper's service business organized as a Proprietorship.

PIPER'S PUMPKIN SPICE FOOD TRUCK

The Investment...

Piper Garrett had an opportunity to buy her uncle's food truck for a great price. She makes the most amazing pumpkin spice donuts and pumpkin spice cappuccino and frappe drinks. She wants to get all that she needs to open for business quickly so that she can take her food truck to the fall festivals.

On September 15th, she invested $6,500 of her own cash to start her own food truck business. R1

Month	Account Title	Doc. No	Post Ref	Debit	Credit

Setting up the business...

Piper's uncle told her that she will need supplies, equipment, and insurance to get started.

September 17th, Piper bought $248 of cups, lids, napkins, and pumpkin spice mix to supply her truck. C1

September 20th, She made a trip to the insurance company to purchase a $800.00, six month policy so that she could operate as soon as possible. C2

September 21st, Ken's Bakery Supply Co. agreed to allow Piper to purchase $120 of supplies on account and pay within 30 days. M1

Month	Account Title	Doc. No	Post Ref	Debit	Credit

Business Ed With Denise Leigh © 2020

An Excellent Reinforcement activity to assign AFTER teaching Journalizing.

Making money...

September 24th, Piper finally got to enjoy her first day of sales. She sold $525 of pumpkin spice donuts and beverages! These cash sales have made her even more excited to work more festivals. T24

September 25th, It was another great day for the food truck! Piper made $625 in cash sales! T25

September 27th, the Chamber of Commerce wanted to buy coffees for their employees each day and pay at the end of the month. They will be the only account receivable. Piper sold $28 of coffee to them. S1

Month	Account Title	Doc. No	Post Ref	Debit	Credit

Maintaining Business Operations

September 29th, Piper is so happy with her sales totals for this fall festival, that she decided to pay rent for the month of October. She wrote a check for $750 for October's rent. C3

September 30th, Piper had signed a lease to advertise her pumpkin spice food truck. She paid $55 for the advertising. C4

September 30th, Piper's food truck is running out of supplies. Piper bought supplies for $285. C5

October 1, Piper paid for her supplies. C6

Month	Account Title	Doc. No	Post Ref	Debit	Credit

NO PREP!
CAN BE USED AS AN ASSESSMENT!

Business Ed With Denise Leigh © 2020

TEACHERS RAVE ABOUT PIPER'S PUMPKIN SPICE FOOD TRUCK!

Check out the  reviews!!!

 Extremely satisfied

This resource was great. My class periods are 75 minutes so I added some additional transactions. This is a great review for the journal.

 Extremely satisfied

Great resource! I used it as reinforcement, and it worked well!

 Extremely satisfied

My accounting students loved this assignment! It was so interactive and gave them a "real approach" to practice their newly learned accounting skills!

 Extremely satisfied

This was perfect as review. I ended up out for a few days and this was something they could do independently as reinforcement.

 Extremely satisfied

Students were actively engaged in the activity, which I used at the end of Chapter 3 to review transactions. A great activity!

 Extremely satisfied

My students enjoyed taking a break from MindTap and doing something a little different. The class was engaged, they had great conversations about the accounts that they needed. Highly recommend. It was a great review of journalizing transactions.

 Extremely satisfied

Students love anything Food Truck themed. Fun way to learn accounting! Excellent resource.

 Extremely satisfied

Another great resource to supplement the work we are doing in class. I like having something different to present to them in terms of the format. Thanks!!

Hi! My name is Denise Leigh. I have been teaching Business Education for over 25 years! I love collaborating with business educators all over the world. I am a 2022 Pennsylvania Teacher of the Year Finalist and relentless lifetime learner and lover of everything education. Engaging students and connecting them to their world is my jam! Thank you for exploring my resources and sharing my passion for BUSINESS EDUCATION!

Denise Leigh is an expert on student-led instruction. She was featured on CBS Pittsburgh for her City Collaborative™ Project-Based Business Education (PBL) Classroom.

