A Great Introduction to Soft Skills!

TAKE A LOOK AT YOURSELF.....

Employability/Soft Skills

Soft skills are the personal attributes you need to succeed in the workplace. These are often related to how you work with others. In other words, these are people skills and are often called employability skills.

An important lesson for ANY High School Student!

Students are prompted to look at themselves.

What soft skills do they have and what needs improvement?

Teacher Testimonials

I have been thoroughly impressed by this product. The material is well-organized and easy to follow, making it an ideal tool for both new and experienced educators.

Great way to talk about soft skills. Used it in my 7th and 8th grade classes

Easy to use, no prep activity to get students introduced and thinking about soft skills.

This was great for my students to do before their mock interviews. After reflecting on these things they were able to articulate them in their interviews. Great resource and would buy again!

Helpful in reinforcing employability skills during our career unit.
