A FUN, ENGAGING WAY TO GET THEM TYPING!

Key the Irish Blessing

Legend has it that a leprechaun is a type of fairy that stands about as tall as a three-year-old child. A leprechaun is usually described as a bearded man who wears a green suit and hat. It's believed there are no female leprechauns to be found. According to stories, the leprechaun is a shoemaker who spends most of his time making and fixing shoes. In fact, some say when a leprechaun is near, you can hear the tap-tap-tapping of his tiny hammer as he drives nails into shoes. These little men are also said to be very mischievous and enjoy playing tricks on those they meet.

Learn about the pot of gold!

It's said that every leprechaun has a pot of gold that he hides deep in the Irish countryside. According to legend, the leprechaun must give this treasure away to anyone who captures him. But this little fellow won't let his treasure slip away easily. The story goes that the sneaky leprechaun can fool a person into looking away for an instant. And just like that, he vanishes into his forest home and takes his treasure with him.

Key the Joke

Q: What's Irish and stays out all night?
A: Patty O furniture!

Kevin O'Leary
Irish Entrepreneur and TV Personality
Key the short biography of Kevin O'Leary

After his extraordinary success at the software company he founded and a difficult period of obstacles and legal disputes, Kevin eventually found himself on television, quickly becoming a sought-after host and personality on a range of shows – including Discovery's Project Earth, CBC's Dragons' Den, and ABC's Shark Tank. Kevin has since launched O'Leary Funds, an investment fund company; O'Leary Fine Wines; and a best-selling book series on financial literacy. In 2014, Kevin founded O'Leary Financial Group – a group of brands and services that share Kevin's guiding principles of honesty, directness, convenience, and above all, great value.

Fun Facts About St. Patrick's Day

- The shamrock: According to legend, St. Patrick used the three leaf clover (or shamrock) to explain the Trinity.
- Dyeing the river green: The practice of dyeing the river green started in Chicago in 1962, when city officials decided to dye a portion of the Chicago River green.
- Corn beef and cabbage: This is an Irish-American dish. Irish immigrants were so poor they could not afford certain meats. On St. Patrick's Day, the best meal they could afford was beef and cabbage. It became a staple for the holiday.
